

SIEM RIEP

Private Getaway

The latest addition to Zannier Hotels, a family-owned luxury hotel group, Phum Baitang comprises 45 private villas designed to resemble Cambodian houses that are set amongst swaying plantations of verdant lemongrass. There are two locally inspired restaurants, and the Temple Spa, offering a sanctuary within the resort oasis, complete with seven treatment rooms, sauna, steam room, relaxation area as well as a yoga pavilion. The perfect place to recharge after a day exploring the famous temples of Angkor. www.phumbaitang.com

RIO DE JANEIRO

Cultural Club

Marking AccorHotels' expansion into Brazil is MGallery by Sofitel's recent management of Hotel Santa Teresa, an exquisite property located in a city with eclectic culture and a bohemian edge in its architecture, museums and local fashion village. In a bid to attract sustainable and cultural tourism to the surrounding neighbourhood, the hotel has gone through a 10-year restoration to its 44 rooms and suites. Recognised with five forks by Michelin Brazil 2015, the hotel's Brazilian restaurant, the Tèreze, offers contemporary cuisine and a panoramic view of Baía de Guanabara. santa-teresa-hotel.com

DUBAI

Party Trifecta

Jetsetters have another destination to look forward to as Desert Palm Per Aquum unveils its three-bedroom Villa Layali. On top of a private entrance of a winding Jordanian stone pathway surrounded by water features and manicured hedges, the villa features a large courtyard and a glass-enclosed Great Room overlooking the superb view of the championship polo field. Bedrooms feature plush beds, refined linens and a menu of pillows and ceiling-mounted Bose speakers to ensure deep sleep. www.peraquum.com

