

Omaanda Zannier Hotels' Namibia

In search of a unique place to unwind and enjoy the beauty of nature? Discretely nestled in the boundless Namibian savannah, Omaanda promises you an out-of-the-ordinary escape. A once-in-a-lifetime adventure where the untainted and authentic charm of the place inspired the sobriety of this exceptional retreat.

Omaanda is a five-star lodge set within the Zannier Reserve by N/a'an ku sê, an incredible private animal conservation reserve of 9000 hectares in the countryside surrounding the Namibian capital Windhoek. It is the most recent creation of Zannier Hotels (the lodge opened its doors last July). Soberly luxurious and in complete harmony with the purity of the site, the camp features ten comfortable round thatched huts, paying tribute to the traditional architecture of the Owambo tribe.

The spacious double-bedrooms (120 sqm), composed of two bedrooms with private bathroom and terraces (26 sqm) separated with a cozy living room, easily accommodate up to 4 adults and 2 children.

Ideal to travel with all the tribe (little ones should be over 6 years). Besides the king-size bed, the walk-in dressing and the open fire place in every room, all bathrooms feature a walk-in shower and a large bathtub.

Guests are offered an all-inclusive treat, from home-made breakfast to delicious dishes to share, including generous pieces of "game meat" on a spit. Expect a quality of service that is both homely and flawless, and a friendly atmosphere.

Melting into the incredible background, the bar on the edge of the heated outdoor infinity pool offers a refreshing retreat after unforgettable made-to-measure safaris. Many excursions are indeed proposed, to discover the rich Namibian fauna and flora.

A spa and a boma complete the camp facilities, offering relaxation and a typically local place to meet and mingle by the fire.
