TRIP OVERVIEW

Together with Leica Akademie and two of their ambassadors, Zannier Hotels have crafted a unique 10-day trip that will take you across their two award-winning lodges in Namibia: Omaanda and Sonop.

Omaanda is a lodge at the heart of an exceptional animal conservancy reserve. Here, in addition to daily game drives where you will spot a large variety of animals, a full immersion into the inner workings of our animal conservancy will occur. This will allow you to be up close to some of the most impressive animals on the continent, such as leopards, elephants, rhino's and many more, as well as learn from numerous wildlife experts at a world-renowned reserve.

Furthermore, during your stay at Omaanda you will also have the opportunity to visit the San Bushmen in their traditional village and witness their ancient culture and traditions first hand. The San will show you plants they use for medicinal purposes, how they make fire and set traps, tell you how they hunt and regale you with stories, song and dance.

After Omaanda, you will travel South to the Namib desert, an extraordinary place that plays host to the most incredible sights you have ever seen. Here, you will stay at Sonop, a luxurious tented camp constructed on top of boulders, with 360 degree views of the surrounding desert landscape. During your stay, you'll explore the reserve on horseback, go on breath-taking nature walks, and depart on incredible adventures.

The highlight will be a sunrise visit to the dunes of Sossusvlei, the world's tallest. An extraordinary custom-made experience will await you there. Back at the lodge, you'll also witness and learn to photograph the milky way like never before. Sonop sits in one of the world's 11 dark sky reserves, meaning the sky is so clear you can see virtually all of the stars in the sky.

Beyond these experiences, Zannier Hotels have crafted a stay where every detail has been considered, from fresh and local cuisine to personalised massage treatments. No request is too great for our teams who will be happy to arrange any special requests.

The retreat takes a maximum of 10 guests for the perfect group experience, welcoming both beginners to advanced photographers.

DETAILED ITINERARY

- Day 1: Arrive in Windhoek International Airport anytime where a short car transfer (45mins) will take you to Omaanda, your accommodation for the next 4 nights.

This first part of the day will be spent at leisure. You can unwind from your travels by our infinity pool, or re-energise at our spa, where a complementary massage awaits you.

Come early evening, a game drive will be organised within our private reserve, the Zannier Reserve by N/a'an ku sê, a haven of peace and a second chance for many animal species. More than just a 'run-of-the mill' game reserve, it is a vibrant, dynamic sanctuary that plays an active conservation role in Namibia. Nestled on a 9,000-hectare family owned land, it is blessed with a great biodiversity of habitat and wildlife.

Our experienced guides will take you with our well-equipped open vehicles around the pristine 9,600-hectare reserve, showcasing the life of our conservation reserve. The evening drive will reveal the elusive beauty of the nocturnal savannah.

All our excursions are conducted in state-of-the-art Land Cruisers. During the conservation drive, you might see a variety of wildlife, including rhinos, elephants, girafes, cheetahs, leopards, ostriches, black-backed jackals, warthogs, various antelopes (kudu, red hartebeest, steenbok, waterbuck, oryx, springbok), and many types of birds.

Back at the lodge, a fine dining experience will await you at our restaurant, Ambo Delights. This will be the case every other night as well.

- Day 2: After a refreshing first night in your luxurious traditional huts at Omaanda, we will embark on a behind the scenes discovery of the neighbouring wildlife sanctuary.

Led by Marlice van Vuuren (founder of the sanctuary), this full-day excursion aims to show you the backstage of the Zannier Reserve by N/a'an ku sê. This behind the scenes excursion includes a tour of the Shiloh Wildlife Sanctuary, where you will discover the incredible work of passionate vets who are rescuing and taking care of endangered animals. A visit of the Research Center will get you the privilege of walking with cheetahs and with baboons. Your discovery of the actions undertaken by N/a'an ku sê will continue with the visit of the Clever Cubs School.

The Shiloh Wildlife Sanctuary has become an internationally recognized model of animal conservation. It provides a safe haven for orphaned or injured animals. A 10-hectare soft release site within the reserve provides space for their rehabilitation, so they can adapt to their new surroundings before their release. We will also visit this space and come close to many animals.

- Day 3: Back in the reserve, spend the sunrise with meerkats, such incredible early-risers creatures, and witness how they go about their morning routine – basking in the sun and foraging for food. You will be amazed by the cuteness and ingenuity of these extremely social animals. Living in clans, these omnivore mammals follow a well-organized matriarchal structure. Meerkats hunt together, and regularly rotate duties (such as babysitting) to different members of the colony.

The Zannier Reserve by N/a'an ku sê is home to various meerkat colonies. Meerkats (also known as suricate) mainly live in deserts and grasslands' environments, across South Africa. Seriously cute, many of these wonderful creatures are raised by people as pets. Once they start biting the owners or their children, people usually want to get rid of them. At the N/a'an ku sê Foundation, we very often find a way to re-wild them and form colonies that can be released back in the wonderful countryside. A great illustration of the tireless conservation efforts and of successful wildlife reintroduction.

After returning to the lodge for some rest and relaxation, towards late afternoon we will embark on a special visit to a San Bushmen village visit. Here, you will witness their ancient culture and traditions first hand. The San will show you plants they use for medicinal purposes, how they make fire and set traps, take you along on one of their huts and regale you with stories, song and dance. This is a magical opportunity to connect with an ancient community who will show you their ancestral way of life.

Come evening, you will join the San Bushmen around their evening fire and listen to their traditional stories about the stars, animals, galaxies and the universe.

- Day 4: We will start the morning with a sunrise game drive. Our experienced guides will take you with our well-equipped open vehicles around the pristine 9,600-hectare reserve, showcasing the life of our conservation reserve. Early drives at sunrise are ideal to observe the Namibian plains waking up.

After a beautiful breakfast, the afternoon will then be spent at leisure for those who desire. For the more active, a guided walk will be organised within the reserve where we are likely to track a few animals.

Whether these are rhinos, elephants or carnivores, it will be an exhilarating afternoon where expert trackers will share insights into these animals' routines, behaviours, and or conservation efforts as well as the poaching issues we are fighting.

- Day 5: On day 5 we will embark on a morning transfer to Sonop lodge, a 5-hour scenic drive from Omaanda. The drive truly is special, and will allow you to witness the incredible breadth of landscape this country has to offer. The regions the drive will traverse are also some of the most isolated and least populated on earth, making it a truly unique experience.

There is also the option to fly to Sonop's private airstrip, however, at an extra cost. The afternoon at Sonop lodge will then be spent resting and relaxing, whether in our spa, by the pool, or through a leisurely activity such as a walk, or 4x4 reserve tour.

Come evening, a special meal under the stars and atop the Sonop dune will await you. Carefully chosen to allow for complete discretion and privacy, so that apart from the lanterns hanging from the ancient branches of the Acacia Eriوبا to the side of you and the candelabra on the table, no other human-created light can be observed. The immense Galaxy above you sets the dramatic stage in its incredible intensity, from which your grand style safari table takes its lead. Your private Chef then takes you on an epicurean journey: four courses, inspired by the menu one would expect on an aristocratic African safari.

- Day 6: After a sunrise photo session from the lodges viewpoints, morning starts with a horseback ride across the reserve, with horses carefully selected from our very own stables. Guests who prefer can also follow along on electric fat-tire bikes.

As you embark on this unique riding experience at the breaking of the day, you soon realise that you are at one with the desert, interwoven intricately within the network of living and non-living elements that make up this vast landscape. Your horse, expertly led by your horse guide, takes you on one of our bespoke trails. Ascend the ridge of a red sand dune and walk its ridge, feeling the cool breeze in your face whilst you become one within the grand desert vista. Pause in wonder as the light and sun changes the patterns and colours of the plain below. Disembark your horse as your guide prepares and hands you a steaming cup of freshly-filtered single-origin aromatic African coffee, which helps you find your centre within this place, the most ancient desert in the World. Having refreshed both body and soul remount and follow your guide descending the dune, homeward bound into the ancient river course, interspersed with desert hardened ancient Acacia Eriobas, some festooned with the World's largest avian dwellings – the communal nests of the sociable weavers.

In the late afternoon / early evening, you will embark on a nature drive. Our sunset nature drive has been created to perfectly immerse you in the reawakening of infinite micro (and some macro) lifeforms, after their midday siesta. Our expert guides will demonstrate examples of careful yet ingenious energy-saving methods employed by some desert-dwelling perfectly-adapted inhabitants, leaving you with a glimpse into the colourful layer of understanding which makes a fragile ecosystem such as this so special and expertly evolved. Pausing often, alighting from your macro view seat onto the desert floor, you will experience a beetle-eye-view, enabling your full faculty of senses to create within you the deep understanding of what it means to successfully survive in a harsh environment such as this.

Stopping the vehicle at a carefully selected point as the shadows extend and envelope the watercolour-patchwork of the desert plains, you celebrate another passing day as it enters the night, rewarded by sipping on a dew-cold glass of Sauvignon Blanc or maybe a masterfully curated gin and tonic, whilst you eagerly await for the sun to kiss the horizon and the first of the celestial stars to appear.

Come night-time, a special astronomy discovery and photography session will take place. Tibo and Sebastien will teach you the difficult skill of mastering night photography in arguable the darkest sky on our planet, while Brian, Sonop's General Manager and passionate astronomer, will share his in depth knowledge of our wider universe. Sonop is situated within one of the world's only 11 dark sky associations, where the sky is so clear that the stars and the milky way is more defined than anywhere else. A truly unique and life-changing experience.

- Day 7: Today is the day we explore the beautiful Namib Desert area, including the largest dunes in the world at Sossusvlei, with a champagne breakfast! Departing camp at dawn, to arrive at the oldest and largest sand dunes on earth within the “golden time” just after sunrise, makes the inconvenience of the early start a distant memory.

After a short and seamless transition, you enter the Namib Naukluft Park, home to both Sossusvlei and Deadvlei. Your breath is sure to catch as you become immersed in the beauty and enormity of the rich-red dunes, with the younger and lighter taupe-yellow coloured sand merging from their base on either side of the road. Your eyes are unable to savor the sights quickly enough, as your mind attempts to satisfy your insatiable thirst for this incomparable beauty. After a short while, your guide will come to a stop and invite you out of your comfortable vehicle and you are able to stand in awe, as you face an enormous languishing ochre sand dune.

Walking with your guide you begin your pilgrimage up the snaking razorback. Slow steady small strides are the order of the day. This is not a race but a journey of discovery, a life-enriching passage. The photos you take here will last a lifetime.

Upon return to the base and after a short journey your guide will stop in a carefully chosen spot, allowing for rest, recuperation and the natural beauty of your surrounds to continue to wash over you. A shaded shelter, table, safari chairs, linens and all the table adornments synonymous with the superior standard and level you have become accustomed to at Sonop, appear from the luxury full-size 4WD almost miraculously. A feast awaits you!

You will then make your way to Deadvlei and the ‘Big Daddy’ dune, the other highlight of the day. Deadvlei is a clay pan characterized by dark, dead camel thorn trees contrasted against the white pan floor. The pan was formed when the Tsauchab River flooded and the abundance of water allowed camel thorn trees to grow. However, the climate changed and the sand dunes encroached on the pan, blocking the river from reaching the area. The trees are estimated to be approximately 900 years old, however they have not decomposed due to the dry climate.

Deadvlei is a paradise for photographers as the contrast between the pitch-black trees and bleached-white pans, and the rusty-red dunes and deep blue sky make for incredible images.

Upon return to Sonop and after dinner and some rest, the day will then be concluded by an outdoor cinema experience by our infinity pool.

- Day 8: The day will start with a special breakfast atop the Sonop dunes where you will enjoy a delightful meal.

After a leisurely wake-up, you'll depart camp with your guide on an informative journey following a desert track, hemmed between an ancient riverbed on the left and a long red-sand yellow-grass dune on your right. After watching the microlife shake themselves awake with the warming sun, your guide will stop the vehicle and show you the way as you ascend the dune to the top. Turn a full sweep at the apex of the dune in awe, as you drink in an elevated and unimpeded 360° panoramic view of the desert plains, dune and mountains beyond.

Amble a little while further, being exposed to and immersed in the dune ecosystem, which differs from that of the plains... and then, perfectly yet discretely placed with crisply starched linens, napery, silverware and crystal glassware under the bough of an age-gnarled desert Camelthorn Acacia, your breakfast setting awaits you. Your personal Chef awaits to prepare a range of fare, 'à la minute', that would befit an aristocratic luxury 1920 safari. No breakfast of this nature would be complete without freshly squeezed orange juice and a bottle of desert-dry Brut champagne. A uniquely desert gastronomic experience.

The rest of the day will then be spent at leisure, most likely poolside enjoying the beautiful summer weather. For the more adventurous, a hike, bike/horse ride, or a nature drive will be organised.

- Day 9: To prepare for the transfer back to Omaanda lodge later in the morning, a group yoga activity is organised to soak up the desert vibes. Gather before the breaking of the new day and follow the lead of our specialised Sonop yoga instructor. Routines are designed with the novice in mind, to ensure broad base participation and appeal. Connect with your inner-state as you move through several poses, feeling the light, warmth and freedom of the desert become synonymous with your being

After a hearty breakfast, we then embark on a 5-hour scenic drive from Sonop. There is also the option to fly to back to Windhoek at extra cost.

The afternoon is then spent at leisure at Omaanda, although guests will have the opportunity to embark on a late afternoon/evening game drive should they wish to.

We will then celebrate this wonderful trip, the memories forged and the unique photographs created through an authentic Namibian dinner at our restaurant, Ambo delights.

- Day 10: At your best convenience, private transfer to the airport from Omaanda (45mins) will be organised.

NOTE: Trip can easily be extended prior/after the retreat upon request.*
