

Living where others spend their vacations: Zannier Hotels Bãi San Hô invites you to settle down on an untouched stretch of vietnam's coast. Zannier Hotels offers the first residential villas within Zannier Hotels Bãi San Hô.

Phu Yen, December 12, 2020

With the recent opening of Zannier Hotels Bãi San Hô in December 2020, private villas are now available for sale for the first time in the history of the (still young) hospitality group. The parc of 45 scheduled Vietnamese-style residences is located - like the resort - in the heart of a protected 98 hectare area in the Vietnamese province of Phu Yen. They are overlooking the one kilometer long white private beach. Surrounded by jungle-covered hills, tropical nature and rice paddy fields, far away from the usual tourist paths, Bãi San Hô is a paradise on earth, marking the fifth opening of the group.

Further information about the resort : www.zannierhotels.com/en/baisanho-press-release/
And about the residential programme: www.zannierhotels.com/en/zannier-residences/

A PEACEFUL & PROTECTED SANCTUARY

With a size of 304 to 410 square meters of living space, the new villas of Zannier Hotels Bãi San Hô create generously proportioned private domiciles on two floors, which at the same time offer all the amenities of a five-star hotel. All the villas for sale are facing the sea and at the same time offer a view of the unspoiled nature and surrounding rice fields, the coral bay and the neighboring fishing village with its colorful boats. Spread over two floors, the private villas offer three to four bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, an open plan kitchen, large living and dining area and a room for staff. Thanks to the spacious outdoor areas, the private domiciles also offer special spots for unique sunrises: Each villa has a loggia, various terraces and decks, and a private infinity plunge pool facing the sea on a total area of 110 to 120 square meters, which allows you to observe impressive color plays in the morning.

A CULTURAL APPROACH TO DESIGN

Like the hotel villas, the refuges for sale are built in the typical style of the region and are modelled on the traditional houses of the Cham, the descendants of the once important Kingdom of Champa, and Ede, an ethnic group of Central Vietnam. In the construction of the villas, as with the other houses in the group, great emphasis was placed on sustainability and local materials. For visionary Arnaud Zannier, the primary goal is to leave as little ecological footprint as possible and to protect and value the surrounding nature and local heritage.

In order to bring the region's lifestyle to life inside the villas, hand-woven rattan furniture, local antiques and typical Vietnamese silk paintings and paintings decorate the individual rooms, accompanied by a sophisticated color concept based on the culture and nature of Phu Yen, making the stay in the villa a stylish and relaxed time out.

A HOUSE APART FROM EVERYDAY LIFE

From restaurant visits in the resort's three food spots to spa treatments in the Hoa Sen Spa, yoga sessions, a round of tennis on the resort's own court or water sports activities: owners of Bãi San Hô's private villas have unlimited access to all the resort's services. In contrast to hotel guests, owners who find their new home on the east coast of Vietnam are allowed to enjoy the view of the natural paradise in their own homes for an unlimited period of time and do not have to pack suitcases for the flight home.

ABOUT ZANNIER HOTELS

Timeless, elegant and exquisite: this is the signature of Zannier Hotels, a still young, privately owned hotel group. In December 2020, Zannier Hotels Bãi San Hô opened its first hotel in Vietnam, expanding the portfolio to five hotels. Bãi San Hô - which means "bay of corals" in Vietnamese - is located in the province of Phu Yen, about 35 kilometers south of Quy Nhơn in the middle of a protected 98-hectare area on a kilometer-long white sandy beach. The Namibian lodge Zannier Hotels Omaanda is located northeast of Windhoek in the private Zannier Reserve by N/a'an ku sê. Here individual design meets traditional Owambo influences, and everything is infused by a sense of wilderness. In the south of the Namib Desert lies Zannier Hotels Sonop, a tented camp built on rocks that takes guests on a journey through time to the 1920s.

CONTACTS

Zannier Hotels Bãi San Hô

Hoa Thanh Hamlet

Xuan Canh Commune

Song Cau District,

Phu Yen Province, Vietnam

www.zannierhotels.com/baisanho

PRESS AND PHOTO REQUESTS

Quentin Guiraud

PR & Communication Manager

Zannier Hotels Headquarters

gguiraud@zannier.com

+32 (0)472 05 57 19

Skype: quentin.guiraud